News

Well as most of you have found out by now, Scott has left the building. We had a couple impromptu farewell parties for him and although we were sad to see him go we wish him the best with his new career. Check out some photos from these parties in our gallery. Angela H. took off as well for sunny Florida, where she and Blair will be having a baby and helping her parents out with their new business venture. It's quite a move but they are threatening us with frequent visits for Chiefs games and I'm sure they will have no shortage of visitors this winter. Of course with these as well as a few other departures last month you will be seeing plenty of fresh faces around Maloneys in the coming weeks.

Roof Top

Now on to the business of the Roof Top. We do not have a grand opening date yet. Before we will have this information, we are waiting on one little stair problem that involves some technical crap I don't understand to be dealt with. After that is fixed, we will be more or less ready to go. The inside furniture is up there. The outside furniture is arriving soon. The bar is close to done. The tvs are going in. A few are already installed actually along with some speakers. The walls are getting decorated as well as the outside of the garage doors which you should be able to see when you drive by. The beer lines are installed or close to done. There is coolers behind the bar. Also, we have made several improvements downstairs with the new area under the stairs for games, new floor in the ladies room, and added some more tvs down there. Anyway, for now we invite you to check out the new pictures in our gallery and I will be sending an update some time very soon with a grand opening date for you!

Football

Football season is already here! Fantasy Drafts are completed and now its time to sit back and enjoy the season as it unfolds. Whether you are a hometown Chiefs fan, root for some other team, or just like to watch a little of everything to see how your fantasy team is performing, Maloneys is the perfect spot to watch all the action this year. We have the NFL Sunday ticket and plenty of tvs and satellite boxes to keep you up to date. I've momentarily lost track of how many tvs we have. New ones were popping up all over the place yesterday. We use to have 31. One of those was temporarily removed for construction. Then the last little guy in the pool area was replaced. So I think those two were replaced and I believe three additional ones were added which would put us at 34! Don't hold me to that count though. I'm not sure if they were finished. Of course that would be 25 inside and 9 viewable from our patio which looks like it will be a great spot for watching games this weekend with the weather looking pretty darn nice. Then whenever the roof top opens, it looks like we will have 15 more tvs for your viewing pleasure. There is going to be some really cool ones up there. Huge ones on the west wall inside and evidently there is some for the outside that are all weather water proof and unaffected by glare! Can't wait to watch a game on those bad boys. Drink specials are pretty fantastic on Sundays too. We have $2.50 domestic bottles and wells, $3.50 bloody Marys and $3 shots available all day.

Of course if you are a College Football fan, we can show you plenty of those games too. We have added Big Ten Network again for the season for all of you cornhuskers out there. We offer buckets of beer for only $15 for any 5 bottles which includes domestics and premiums all day on Saturdays.

Brunch is served until 2pm both weekend days. Pizzas are 10% off smalls and 20% off large all weekend. We have our pork chop and mac & cheese dinner available after 5pm on Saturdays and a monthly Sunday night dinner special after 5 starting with Country Fried Steak in September.

And with all this excitement going on, we must not forget about the Royals! They are up one game in their division right now with a couple weeks left to go. Will they make it to the post season for the first time since whenever that was in the 80's? Sorry I'm not great with sports trivia but it would be interesting to see what happens at Maloney's with the Royals in the playoffs because I do know it has never happened in the 11 years we have been open!

UFC

Maloney's will be showing UFC 178 Johnson v. Cariaso on Saturday, September 27th. We will be taking reservations for this fight but you must be there by 7PM when the preliminaries start to get your table. Buckets of beer are only $15 for any 5 bottles including domestic and imports. Our famous pork chop and mac and cheese dinner is available after 5pm for only $7.95. Or you can build your own mac and cheese with 2 toppings of your choice all day. Pizzas are 10% off small and 20% off large.
